

Material Storage Conditions

Storage requirements by type of material - One Blood UK

Document reference	Imp.216.1
Version	1.0
Effective date	07/09/2026
Approved by	Raquel Soares RS

Veterinary medicinal products are stored in accordance with the product's Summary of Product Characteristics and label, as required under the Veterinary Medicines Regulations 2013.

Type of material	Temperature conditions	Environmental protection	Shelf life	Monitoring	Action in case of deviation
Laboratory reagents	According to the manufacturer	Protected from sunlight	According to the label	Items requiring refrigeration - refrigerator with data logger	Isolate the material and assess conformity
Consumables	According to the manufacturer	Protected from sunlight	According to the supplier	Items requiring refrigeration - refrigerator with data logger	Isolate the material and assess conformity
Sterile consumables	Room temperature (15-25 °C)	Undamaged packaging	According to the supplier	Visual inspection	Reject if damaged
Veterinary medicines	According to the manufacturer	Protected from sunlight; segregated by type of medicine	According to the label	Temperature recording	Notify the Technical Director
Equipment	Room temperature (15-25 °C)	Dry	Not applicable	Preventive maintenance according to the supplier	Corrective maintenance
Cleaning and disinfection materials	Room temperature (15-25 °C)	Stored in cabinets intended solely for this purpose	According to the manufacturer	Visual inspection	Reject if non-compliant

MATERIAL · STORAGE